OUR MISSION

Muslim Social Services (MSS) is committed to improving human welfare through a variety of social and community services. MSS was established in 2000 in response to a growing demand for programs and services that addresses the needs and welfare of individuals and families striving to improve their condition. MSS serves as a central point of contact for those needing social services within the central Florida community.

The mission of the MSS is to respond to the social, psychological, and economic needs of individuals and families through the provision of services and resources to alleviate suffering, promote well-being and strengthen individuals, families, and communities. MSS is a department within the Islamic Society of Central Florida, a nonprofit 501 (c) (3) organization.

Our services

MSS programs, direct services, and referrals help those in need access the community resources required to achieve self-sufficiency. MSS assists hundreds of eligible individuals with the following community programs::

- Muslim free health clinic
- Seeds of Paradise food pantry
- Employment referral program
- Clothing and houseware donation program
- Citizenship study material and referrals
- Legal assistance referrals
- Life skills workshops
- Homeless care program
- Zakat emergency financial assistant
- And much more!

Clinical services

One of the main human rights that all people should receive is the right for affordable medical attention in a time of need. With this concept in mind, the Muslim Social Services in partnership with the Florida Department of Health provides FREE medical services to those in need.
